Jonathan White, a son of Peregrine and Sarah (Bassett) White, was born June 4, 1658 in Marshfield, Mass. He first married Esther Nickerson February 2, 1682. After her death on February 8, 1703, he married Margaret Elizabeth Alexander August 8, 1708. Margaret was born about 1670 and died April 12, 1718.

Jonathan apparently died early in 1737, since his will was probated February 22, 1737.

Alexander White, a son of Jonothan and Margaret Elizabeth (Alexnader) White, was born in Massachussets September 8, 1709 and died in Greenwich Township, Sussex County, New Jersey in September 1776.

It is not know when Alexander came to New Jersey, but he married Mary McMurtrie in Sussex County March 21, 1736. Mary was born in Sussex County April 18, 1711. Although his will calls him a "cordwainer" or shoemaker, Alexander apparently served his community as an advisor or lawyer, since his name appears on many documents on record in the New Jersey Archives.
